OvidSP News

Spotlight on Search Modes – Search Fields
You probably noticed our recent email highlighting OvidSP’s Search Fields, the latest in our series promoting the platform’s various search modes. Use numerous fields—from title to institution to grants & scholarships—to narrow your search and generate a precise, highly focused set of results. For more details on Search Fields, see the Understanding Search Fields guide, available on the OvidSP Resource Center, where you’ll find similar guides to Basic Search, Find Citation, and Search Tools, and Multi-Field Search, as well as additional information about the OvidSP platform.

Enhancements to OvidSP WebStats Released June 7th
If you regularly run usage statistics reports on your OvidSP resources, you’ll be happy to know that the OvidSP WebStats tool was enhanced on Sunday, June 7th expanding your report options. You can now run reports based on invoiced product, component product (for a journal collection, for example), or how the product is viewed in OvidSP. For full details on these and other enhancements, visit the OvidSP WebStats interface.

Transitioning from the SilverPlatter Platform
Remember, the SilverPlatter Internet service is scheduled for retirement at the end of the month – June 30th. If you haven’t already transitioned to OvidSP, contact your Ovid Technical Support Representative. Sign up for our Migrating from WebSPIRS to OvidSP training class and visit the OvidSP Resource Center regularly for helpful materials and information to make your transition a smooth one.
